BLESSED JOHN DUNS SCOTUS

November 8th is the feast day of Blessed John Duns Scotus, a Franciscan friar from Scotland noted for his theological and philosophical work in the high-middle ages (late 13th and early 14th centuries). Scotus' work was in the generation that followed Thomas of Aquinas and Bonaventure. His work was complex and nuanced, and he is generally considered to be one of the three most important philosopher-theologians of his time. He was given the medieval accolade Doctor Subtilis (Subtle Doctor) for his sharp and subtle manner of thought.

Scotus has had considerable influence on both Catholic and secular thought due to his philosophy. Interestingly, it is his theological insights that are most profound and for which he is little known, even if those insights have far reaching implications. Perhaps one of the most well known of his theological works was a complex argument for the existence of God. Many of his contemporaries were unable to follow his reasoning. Remember, he wasn't called the Doctor Subtilis (Subtle Doctor) for no reason.

The later followers of Scotus, Scotists, were noted for their argumentation that was so subtle it carried little power to convince. These followers were called Duns or Dunsmen. When, in the 16th century, the Scotists obstinately opposed "new learning," that is, they challenged the basis and validity of the translation of the King James Bible, the term duns or dunce became, in the mouths of the Protestants, a term of abuse, a synonym for one incapable of scholarship. Clearly the word "dunce" carries into modern English use. Fortunately, the connection to Blessed John Duns Scotus has been lost – at least until now.

Perhaps the most influential point of John Duns Scotus' theology was his defense of the Immaculate Conception of Mary. At the time, there was a great deal of argument about the subject. While the Church had celebrated the feast as early as the 5th century, the idea met opposition on the part of medieval philosophers and theologians. John Duns Scotus proposed a solution to the theological problem of reconciling the doctrine with that of universal redemption in Christ, when he argued that Mary's immaculate conception did not remove her from redemption by Christ; rather it was the result of a more perfect redemption granted her because of her special role in salvation history. Scotus' argument appears in Pope Pius IX's 1854 declaration of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception, "at the first moment of Her conception, Mary was preserved free from the stain of original sin, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ." Scotus' position was hailed as "a correct expression of the faith of the Apostles."

Another of Scotus' positions also gained official approval of the Roman Catholic Church. His doctrine on the universal primacy of Christ became the underlying rationale for the feast of Christ the King instituted in 1925.

He was born in Scotland, studied and taught in Paris, and was buried in Cologne. On his tomb are the words: Scotia me genuit, Anglia me suscepit, Gallia me docuit, Colonia me tenet. (Scotland bore me, England received me, France taught me, Cologne holds me). Pope John Paul II declared him Blessed for all the Church to honour in 1993.

FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

9th November - Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica - Following Emperor Constantine granting freedom of worship to the Catholic Church in 313, the church was built and consecrated in 324. This church is the cathedral of the diocese of Rome. Its original dedication is to the Most Holy Saviour; in the Middle Ages, the names of St John the Baptist and St John the Evangelist were added, thus the common name is St John Lateran. The basilica is described as the Mother and Head of all the churches in the city and in the world.

10th November - Memoria of St Leo the Great - St Leo the Great, a son of Tuscany, became Pope in 440. Though unable to attend the Council of Chalcedon in 451, his letter defining Christ's twofold nature was acclaimed as the Church's teaching: 'Peter has spoken through Leo'. His famous meeting with Attila the Hun outside Rome the following year saved the city from destruction then, although, despite his efforts it was pillaged by Vandals in 455. Leo's theological writings earned him the title of Doctor of the Church.

11th November - Memoria of St Martin of Tours - St Martin was born in 316 to pagan parents and later served as a soldier. At the age of eighteen he was baptised and, around that time, met a naked beggar to whom he gave half his cloak. That night he had a dream in which the Lord himself was wearing his cloak. He died in 397. He is the patron of France.

12th November - Memoria of St Josaphat - St Josaphat was born around 1580 of Orthodox parents, though he later became a Catholic and entered the Basilian Order at Vilnius. As Archbishop of Polotsk, he worked faithfully for the reform of the Church and unity between Eastern Christianity and Western Christianity. He faced much opposition and suffered martyrdom at the hands of an angry mob at Vitebsk in 1623. He is considered the patron of ecumenism between the Eastern and Western Church (the Orthodox Church and the Catholic Church). On his Memoria we pray for that intention.

ANNUAL REQUIEM MASS

We will gather as a parish community to remember all those clergy and parishioners who have died from our parish, especially those whose funerals have taken place over the past twelve months, on Tuesday 23rd November at 7.00pm in St Mary's. The families of those who have died over the past year are warmly invited to attend to remember their deceased loved ones, but all parishioners are invited to remember all our dead at this special Mass.

RCIA 2021-2022

An information evening will take place this Monday evening at 7.00pm in St Mary's Chapel House for those who wish to learn more about the RCIA process and what is involved in becoming a Catholic. Anyone who has considered becoming a Catholic is invited to come along to this short meeting which will explain how the course will work over the next few months between now and Easter.

FIRST CONFESSIONS

A letter has been sent out to the parents/carers of the pupils in Primary Three who are due to receive the Sacrament of First Confession early next year. This will begin the enrolment process for the children and their parents and hopefully encourage more of our young families to return to Mass and the Sacraments.

100 CLUB

Next weekend in St Mary's we will be trying to encourage more parishioners to join the 100 Club. As things stand at the moment there are many spaces available, we hope to recruit more members next week. At present we have around 200 people attending Mass in St Mary's so if we all took one number each...

SSVP REQUIEM MASS

On Wednesday 17th November at 7.00pm we will celebrate a special Requiem Mass for members of both our parish conferences of the SSVP who have died. This Mass will take place in Our Lady & St John's and all parishioners are warmly invited to join with the SSVP to pray for the deceased members of the society.

WEEKDAY MASS

Over the past few years the numbers at our weekday Masses have decreased, with some days being busier than others. Many of the older parishioners who came along to Mass each morning have sadly died with no one to replace them. All those who are retired, on holiday from work, have a day off or are unemployed are warmly invited to come along and assist at Mass during the week to spend some time listening to the Word of God and receiving Holy Communion.

The Wednesday evening Mass has been put on to help those who work and our young people at school to be afforded the opportunity to come along to Mass, so please consider coming along to this Mass. The Monday 12noon Mass is an ideal Mass if you aren't an early bird and find it difficult to attend Mass first thing in the morning.
