LUMEN GENTIUM

Lumen Gentium (translated as Light of the Nations), was promulgated by Pope Paul VI on 21st November 1964, and is one of the four Constitutions of the Second Vatican Council. It is the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church; what it means to be Church, and addresses the nature, mission and structure of the Church from both a theological and pastoral perspective.

Lumen Gentium is organised into eight chapters that delve into key themes:

The Mystery of the Church: The Church is presented as the universal sacrament of salvation, a mystery in which the visible community and divine grace are intertwined.

The People of God: It emphasised that all the baptised, not just the clergy (pope, bishops, priests and deacons), are an active part of the Church's mission.

The Hierarchy: It reaffirms the authority of the Pope and bishops in communion with him, highlighting episcopal collegiality.

The Laity: An unprecedented acknowledgment of the role of the lay faithful in evangelising and sanctifying the world.

The Universal Call to Holiness: All the faithful, regardless of their state of life (clergy, religious, married, single etc), are called to be holy.

Religious Life: It expressed the value of consecrated life (monks, nuns, religious brothers and sisters) as a prophetic testimony to the Kingdom of God.

The Eschatological Nature of the Church: The Church is on a journey towards fulfilment until the end of time in God's Kingdom in heaven.

The Blessed Virgin Mary: It defined Mary's role as Mother of the Church and model for all of us of faith and charity.

For centuries, the Church was viewed as hierarchically structured with the Pope at its apex. However, this document shifted the focus to the Church as the People of God, a community in which every member plays a vital role. This approach does not diminish the importance of the hierarchy but situates it within a broader perspective: the Church is a communion in which everyone, from the Pope to the humblest person, shares the same baptismal dignity and missionary mandate and commission. We are all called to preach the Good News to the world.

Lumen Gentium invites us to delve deeper into the mystery of the Church as a community of love and service. It reminds us that by uniting in Christ, we can become true witnesses of his light in a world that longs for redemption, a light for the nations. We are called, all of us, to live our faith authentically, build communities of love, and promote a more just and reconciled world as part of the one Church which Christ founded on the rock of Peter.

FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

2nd February - Feast of the Presentation of the Lord - The Presentation of the Lord, popularly known as Candlemas, traditionally concludes the celebration of Christmas. It commemorates the presentation of Jesus in the Temple forty days after his birth, an occasion when offerings were made and the mother was ritually purified. Simeon's prophecy referred to Jesus as 'a light to enlighten the pagans', summing up the Christmas theme of light coming into the darkness, but also points towards the Paschal Mystery, for he was 'destined to be a sign that is rejected'. This day is also observed as the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life.

3rd February - Memoria of St Blaise - St Blaise, bishop and martyr, was a doctor before becoming the bishop of Sebaste in Armenia. He was martyred under Emperor Licinius in the year 316. Cures were attributed to him and it is custom to bless throats on his feast day.

5th February - Memoria of St Agatha - St Agatha was born in 231 and lived in Sicily. Aged 15, she resisted the amorous advances of a public official because she had consecrated herself to Christ. When the Roman Emperor Decius initiated a persecution against Christians, the public official had her brought before him and he committed her to prison. Here she died after undergoing unspeakable tortures - including having her breasts cut off. She is honoured as the patron saint of breast cancer patients and rape victims.

6th February - Memoria of St Paul Miki & Companions - St Paul Miki was born in 1565. He and his twenty-six fellow martyrs were crucified at Nagasaki in 1597. In an outburst of anti-foreign sentiment, both of people and influences, the authorities set about a persecution of Christians. The group of martyrs comprised religious brothers and sisters, priests and lay faithful, including children. When missionaries were allowed to return in the 1860's, they discovered thousands of Catholics in the Nagasaki area to whom the Faith had been secretly handed down over 250 years. St Paul Miki is the patron saint of Japan.

WORKS OVER THE NEXT FEW WEEKS

The following work will be carried out soon to our parish buildings and grounds:

Damp in the Blackwood House: The ceiling at the gable end of the house in Blackwood is letting in damp through the wall into the sitting/meeting room. This will need to be sorted.

Excess Water: There is a big puddle at the back of St Mary's which will need to be cleared and cemented over to prevent the accumulation of water on the ground behind the church.

Exterior Lights: Three exterior lights around St Mary's will be replaced on the church and house.
