THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

When we gather at a friend's home for a meal, we always begin with conversation, telling our stories. At Mass, after the Introductory Rite, we sit down and listen as readings from the Word of God are proclaimed. They are the stories of God's people. Three readings and a psalm. At weekday Mass there are two readings & a psalm.

The first reading will be from the Hebrew Scriptures (except during the Easter season). We recall the origins of our covenant. It will relate to the Gospel and will give background and an insight into the meaning of what Jesus will do in the Gospel.

After a few moments of silence to reflect on the reading we will sing or recite a psalm - a song from God's own inspired hymnal, the Book of Psalms of the Hebrew Bible.

The second reading will usually be from one of the letters of Paul or another apostolic writing.

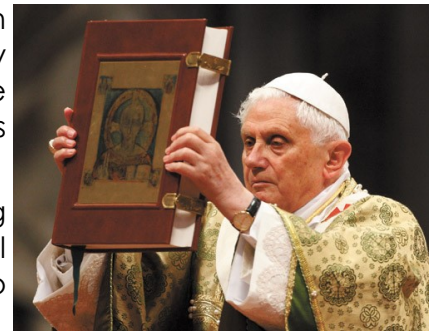

The third reading will be taken from one of the four Gospels. Because of the unique presence of Christ in the proclamation of the Gospel, it has long been the custom to stand in attentive reverence to hear these words. We believe that Christ "is present in his word, since it is he himself who speaks when the holy Scriptures are read in the church". The priest will again greet us with "The Lord be with you." He then introduces the Gospel reading while marking a small cross on his forehead, lips and heart with his thumb while praying silently that God cleans his mind and his heart so that his lips may worthily proclaim the Gospel. In many places, the congregation performs this ritual action along with the priest. The Gospel reading concludes with the ritual formula "The Gospel of the Lord" and we respond, "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ," again proclaiming our faith in the presence of Christ in the word. The priest kisses the text in reverence.

The Homily is more than just a sermon or a talk about how we are to live or what we are to believe. It is an act of worship rooted in the texts of the Mass and especially in the readings from Scripture which have just been proclaimed. The homily takes that word and brings it to our life situation today. Just as a large piece of bread is broken to feed individual persons, the word of God must be broken open so it can be received and digested by the congregation.

Now we stand and together recite the Creed. The Creed is more than a list of things which we believe. It is a statement of our faith in the word we have heard proclaimed in the Scripture and the homily, and a profession of the faith that leads us to give our lives for one another as Christ gave his life for us.

The Liturgy of the Word comes to an end with the intercessions. The intercessions help us become who God is calling us to be. We are the Body of Christ by Baptism. Now, as we prepare to approach the altar, we look into the readings, like a mirror, and ask: Is that who we are? Does the Body of Christ present in this congregation resemble that Body of Christ pictured in the Scripture readings? Usually not! We pray for the Church, nations and their leaders, people in special need and the local needs of our parish - the petitions usually fall into these four categories. A reader may announce the petitions, and we are usually given an opportunity to pray for the intentions we carry in our heart.

The Liturgy of the Word is basically a conversation between God and his people.

FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

24th January - Memoria of St Francis de Sales - St Francis de Sales was born in 1567 and became the Bishop of Geneva when it has become a strong centre of the Protestant Reformation. He won many to the Faith by his gentle and patient nature which even won the respect of his opponents. "A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrelful of vinegar" was a saying of his. He died in 1622 and is the patron of adult education, the deaf, and journalists

25th January - Feast of the Conversion of St Paul - The Conversion of St Paul is recorded twice in great detail in the Acts of the Apostles (chapters 9 and 22). It presents us with the mystery of how he rose to greater prominence than most of the twelve apostles already hand-picked by Christ, and why he needed to be chosen in such dramatic fashion.

26th January - Memoria of St Timothy & St Titus - St Timothy & St Titus were disciples of St Paul to whom he wrote personal letters included in the New Testament. There is no strong tradition they were martyred, but lived long lives building up the Church at Ephesus and on Crete. St Timothy is the patron invoked against stomach and intestinal disorders. St Titus is the patron saint of Crete.

27th January - Optional Memoria of St Angela Merici - St Angela Merici was born in 1474 and went on to found the Ursulines. She directed them to provide education to the young with love, kindness, with firmness and an attention to each individual. She died in 1540. She is the patron of the sick, disabled and physically challenged people and those grieving the loss of parents.

28th January - Memoria of St Thomas Aquinas - St Thomas Aquinas was born in 1225 and abandoned his aristocratic upbringing to join the Dominican Order. He was a man of prayer which bore fruit in extensive writings on spiritual subjects, for which he has the title of 'Doctor of the Church'. He died in 1274 and is the patron of universities and scholars.
